

OMG Emergency Text Alerts

We are offering you the opportunity to be notified about emergencies (weather or otherwise) by text message to a cell phone number you provide to us.

PLEASE NOTE: While OMG will provide this service free of charge, you may be charged for the cost of receiving text messages on your cell phone depending on the calling plan you have in place with your carrier. We will not be responsible for these charges.

By completing this form and returning it to OMG, you authorize us to send text messages to the cell phone listed below for the purposes of company emergency notification only.

NAME (Please Print Clearly)
LOCATION (Addison, Agawam, Asheville, Charlotte, or Rockford)
Shift
CELL PHONE (Where you want emergency text messages sent)

1. Please return this form completed to Lisa Gaouette (scan to lgaouette@omginc.com or fax to 413-789-0420).
2. You will receive a code on the cell phone number above from "OMG Emergency Text" with instructions on how to opt-in for our Company Emergency Text Alerts.
3. Text Alerts will be brief. If we cannot cover the full emergency message we need to deliver by text, we will include in the text an advisory to you to call the main telephone number for your location.

If you notice any issues in the timeliness of text message alerts under this system, please email Lisa Gaouette or call her at 413-789-0252 x1207.
